REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Jose Villoch, an inmate at the State Correctional Institution at Huntingdon, Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, filed a petition for writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 on January 10, 2005.

A 28 U.S.C. §2254 petition may be brought in the federal judicial district in which the state court of the conviction is located and, when the prisoner is confined in a prison located in another federal district in the same state as the state of conviction, the petition may be brought in the district of confinement. The district court for the district in which the petition is filed may transfer the petition to the district court for the district of the conviction when to do so is in the interests of justice. 28 U.S.C. §2241(d).

Petitioner is challenging a July, 2001, murder conviction in the Berks County Court of Common Pleas for which he received a life sentence without parole.

The petitioner is a prisoner at the State Correctional Institution at Huntingdon, Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, which is in this district. He is challenging a murder conviction in Berks County, Pennsylvania, which is in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. All records of conviction, transcripts of proceedings, witnesses, and counsel, both prosecution and defense, are located within the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

It will be in the interests of justice to transfer this petition to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Petitioner claims, in part, that his trial counsel in Berks County was ineffective. All of the records, transcripts, and involved counsel are located in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Based on the foregoing, it is respectfully recommended that this case be transferred to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2241(d).
